

Give them a plan and a clear next step

People do not act on a vague invitation. Show them the few steps, and ask for one specific action.

REMEMBER

- ◆ If the path is foggy, people will not start down it.
- ◆ Three simple steps feel possible. Twelve feel like work.
- ◆ Ask clearly for one thing. A hint is not a request.

YOUR TURN

What happens after someone says yes to me, in three simple steps:

Where a new customer might feel unsure about what comes next:

The one action I want people to take (book, buy, register, call):

Where that action appears now, and where it is missing:

The exact words of my ask:

THIS WEEK

Write your three steps and put them, with one clear button or ask, on the page people visit most.
