

Change one life, change generations

When you help one person, you also shape their family and the people they lead. That is what legacy means.

REMEMBER

- ◆ Your work reaches further than the person in front of you.
- ◆ Legacy is built one changed life at a time, not in one grand moment.
- ◆ Keeping the wider impact in view will carry you through the hard seasons.

YOUR TURN

One client or customer whose life or business is better because of my work:

Who else was touched because that person changed (family, team, customers, community)?

The legacy I want my business to leave:

One decision in front of me now, seen through that legacy:

THIS WEEK

Ask one past client what changed for the people around them because of your work together. Write down their answer and keep it where you can see it.
