

Define what growth means for you

"I want to grow" is not a plan. Decide what growing 10% really means in your numbers, and who you will need to become to hold it.

REMEMBER

- ◆ Growth needs a number and a meaning. Both.
- ◆ Every level of growth asks something of you as a person, not only of your business.
- ◆ What you are growing toward shapes what you teach, encourage and model.

YOUR TURN

The one measure that matters most to me this year:

What a 10% increase looks like in real terms (clients, sales or dollars per month):

What would have to be true of me to hold that? The traits and habits it requires:

The one trait I will build on purpose this quarter:

THIS WEEK

Write your 10% in plain numbers, and beside it the one trait you will strengthen to get there.
